BEAUTIFUL EMBLEM FROM THE TONOPAH SCHOOL

Among the many lovely floral offerings received at the funeral of the late Mrs. Slavin, mother of Charles J. Slavin and Miss Helene Slavin, of Tonopah was an exquisite offering from the teachers associated with Miss Slavin and her pupils. This was in the form of a floral pillow.

MILLIONAIRE PROMOTER VISITING THE DIVIDE

Charles A. Stoneham, mine operator, promoter, banker and baseball magnate, whose wealth is variously estimated at anything in the millions, was among the arrivals here this morning. He was accompanied by E. H. Mead and, as soon as he got his local bearings, followed the changes wrought by a year's absence, the New York man started out for the Divide to visualize the activity in that quarter. He is interested in the Divide Gold Wedge, in which he is said to be one of the largest stockholders and will give that property his closest attention during his stay here. He holds a large block of stock in the Cash Boy Consolidated and will visit that property under the direction of E. H. Mead, secretary of both companies. Mr. Stoneham has been one of the most enterprising investors in Nevada mining stocks, having been represented in every new and old camp of the state and, during his time has invested millions of dollars in mine development. It was with money furnished by Mr. Stoneham that operations were conducted at Hornsilver for many years and he was also interested in building the mill and opening the Big Kanab mine at Jefferson canyon on which he held an option. One of the biggest payers in the Stoneham string of investments is the franchise of the Giants baseball team in New York which, alone, is appraised at over $2,000,000.

Mr. Stoneham is the principal owner of the Calaveras Copper company which boasts of the largest old flotation plant in the United States. He is also a director in the T'air Standard.

CLOCKS GO AHEAD SUNDAY MORNING

Another hour will be added to daylight next Sunday morning at 2 o'clock. Don't forget to set your clock ahead an hour when you retire Saturday night or you will wake up in the morning an hour behind the United States. The daylight saving law begins to run the last Sunday in March of every year and remains in effect until the last Sunday in October.

Railroads will not change their schedule but trains on the road will make up the hour by pulling into stations late or standing still. Mail collections will not be disturbed, and the whole machinery of government trains and everything else will operate just the same, keeping the same hours once the clocks are set ahead.

Official orders from the director general of railroads have been sent to all roads to set their clocks ahead one hour at 2 o'clock next Sunday morning.

TONOPAH SCHOOL BOY NOW IN TIEN TSIN

Dr. C. J. Richards has received a letter from his son, Robert Alexander, dated at Tien Tsin, China, where the lad is stationed with an American regiment. The boy is well pleased with his treatment and surroundings and says that the new barracks built by the American government for the accommodation of the troops is one of the best buildings of the kind to be found in the Orient. When the regiment was first quartered at Tien Tsin the boys had to put up with miserable housing facilities they found awaiting them. Young Alexander went to school here and was one of the bright young lads who have achieved fame after starting out in life selling the Bonanza.

MINING ENGINEERS IN HULL CITY GROUP

One of the earliest organized companies to operate in the Divide district but which has not been announced is the Hull City Mining company named after a town in the Cripple Creek district. The estate represents seven full claims and two fractions situated on the slope of Gold Mountain below the Divide Junior and Grimes Divide. The officers comprise some of the best known mining engineers of Tonopah with I. R. Robins, superintendent of the Tonopah Belmont for president; Herman Dauth, of the engineering staff of the Belmont for vice president; W. J. Gomm, who has acquired a fortune through his choice locations in the Divide district, for secretary and treasurer. These officers will compose the directorate with Arthur J. Rayeraft, cashier of the First National bank and Thomas J. Lynch, internal revenue collector and one of the best known early day mine operators of the Tonopah district. Operations will be in charge of an executive staff consisting of Gust. Hanson, T. J. Lynch and Herman Dauth.

PERSONAL

MR. and MRS. FRANK K. PITTMAN have returned home after spending two weeks on the coast.

THOMAS A. FRAZIER, auditor of the Tonopah Mining company, returned from San Francisco this morning.

A. F. GEGAN, general agent of the Hercules Powder company, is taking in the district on one of his regular visits.

DR. N. A. BROWN, the oculist, was detained in Tonopah today and will not be able to visit Goldfield until tomorrow.

W. A. MARSH, assemblyman from Nye county, is home again ready to take up his sheep business which has prospered greatly during his absence.

JOHN BRADFORD, who has been operating 1200 acres of whiting deposits in the Death valley district arrived last night by auto and will return today.

ARTHUR H. KEENAN has received a letter from his brother, Lieutenant Colonel W. H. Kennedy, advising him of his safe arrival in the United States.

CHARLES A. STONEHAM, mine operator, promoter and banker of New York was an arrival today to look after his interests and to get acquainted with the Divide country.

E. H. MEAD, secretary of the Cash Boy Con. and the Divide Gold Wedge Mining company, arrived this morning accompanied by Mr. Stoneham, who holds large interests in both companies.

WILL FARRINGTON, of Bishop, Cal., a nephew of Archie Farrington, who was one of the leading mine operators in the days of Candelaria and who owned a magnificent ranch at Cloverdale is spending a few days in camp as the guest of Harry Meyers.

WILLIAM J. CLEARY, one of the best known early-day promoters, is back in his old stamping grounds. In 1907 he held an option on the famous Jumbo which was regarded later as one of the best paying mines of the Goldfield Consolidated group and tried to interest Patsy Clark and Jim Harvey but had to let the option lapse because capital had no confidence in southern Nevada.

THOMAS J. LYNCH RESIGNS OFFICE

Thomas J. Lynch, U. S. deputy internal revenue collector, has resigned to take effect April 10 with the understanding that he will remain a short time after that date, if necessary, to instruct his successor. It is expected that there will be some delay in filling the berth which is considered one of the most responsible positions in the gift of the administration with a salary wholly inadequate to the arduous duties or the exactions of the position. This is the second time that Mr. Lynch has tried to escape from the federal service. On the previous occasion he was importuned to remain and was offered an increase in salary and the expense of office room which had been borne by the incumbent for several years. At the time of the previous resignation the position was offered James S. Hays, who declined with thanks, stating that he could earn more money in his capacity as a millman than the government offered to pay.

ALICE BRAY IN THRILLING DRAMA AT BUTLER TODAY

"At the Mercy of Men" Alice Brady's select picture which will be shown at the Butler today, is a thrilling story depicting the life in the period before the evolution when the czar will hold his throne although the masses were murmuring revolt. Miss Brady plays the role of Vera Souroff, a beautiful young music teacher, the daughter of a retired major in the Russian army, who is seized on the streets of Petrograd by three carousing officers of the imperial guard and dragged into a hotel in the pitch darkness she cannot identify the offender. The Countess Zaphine, an influential patroness of Vera gets the czar to arrest the three officers; and he orders Count Nicho, as the eldest, to marry the girl. She however leaves him to return home to her father. The mob comes to lynch the imprisoned guardsmen. Vera warns them, but too late, yet she succeeds in rescuing Nicho in a wounded and unconscious condition. The picture is directed by Charles Miller, well known for his supervision of Norma Talmadge in her three last releases. Added to the program will be a Ford Weekly and a Murt and Jeff comedy.

Tomorrow, "Bill" Montana and Marguerita Fisher in a five-reel feature entitled "Fair Enough."
